Identification Requirements

To ensure that we are releasing health information to the correct person (and protecting your confidentiality) we require certified identification from you. See below for a list of people who are authorised to certify documents.

The identification supplied in order to access your record can consist of one of the following certified primary photographic forms of identification:

- Driver's Licence (Australian)
- Passport (which has not been expired for more than two years)

If these forms of identification are not available then two of the following certified non-photographic forms of identification can be accepted:

- Australian Birth certificate
- Australian Tax Assessment Notice dated within the last 12 months that contains the name of the individual and his or her residential address
- A notice that was issued in the last 3 months by a local government or public utility bill, e.g. gas, electricity, water, rates and contains the applicants name and his or her residential address
- Drivers licence issued by a foreign government.

If you cannot provide the above forms of identification, please contact the Health Information Manager at the Hospital to discuss further.
